Return Reference	Explanation
Part IV, Line 2b	Catholic Charities collects money from Catholic parishes for other Catholic Charitable organizations. Catholic Charities also acts as a fiscal agent for disbursing the San Francisco Chronicle's Season of Sharing fund in Alameda and Contra Costa Counties. The Season of Sharing funds provided are used primarily for housing assistance to individuals. Alameda County Department of Social Services and Contra Costa County administer the program, which involves county social services agencies and other community organizations it designates to screen and direct disbursements to eligible individuals. Catholic Charities is one of the designated organizations.
Part V, Line 4	The principal is to be maintained within the fund, and earnings, if any, up to 50% may be released for operations subject to Board approval.
Part X, Line 2	Catholic Charities is a qualified organization exempt from Federal income and California franchise taxes under the provisions of Sections 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and 23701(d) of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, respectively. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements. Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by the Catholic Charities' in their federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. Catholic Charities' returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three and four years, respectively, after they are filed.
