WHO WE ARE

Catholic Charities East Bay grew up right here in Alameda and Contra Costa counties. Since 1935, Catholic Charities has consistently helped children, families, and seniors move from crisis to stability to well-being. These needs can range from helping pay rent and utilities, to offering counseling services to our youth who are experiencing the pressures of today's society, to assisting our neighbors legally on the path towards citizenship.

“ With Catholic Charities’ help, I have a sense of peace. I was able to successfully be in a better place than I was before. It’s okay to ask for help and ask for support. That’s what they’re here to do. ”

*Dasjha
Housing and Mental Health Client*

In the 2024-2025 fiscal year, we served over

600 clients in our housing department seeking essential support

450 clients through our Family Preservation and mental health program

850 new client cases with free and low-cost immigration services
